

Contents

How to Use this Text	iX
Key to 'Activity' Symbols	X
An Introduction to Textbooks	Xi

Lesson 1 Introduction to Homoeopathy

What is Homoeopathy?	1
Basic Homoeopathic Principles	1
The Law of Similars	2
The Single Remedy	2
The Single Dose	2
The Minimum Dose	3
Potentization	3
The Law of Cure	4
The Homoeopathic Concept of Disease	5
Vitalism	5
What Happened to the Vital Force?	5
Symptoms Indicate Cure	5
Holistic and Natural Medicine	6
Holistic Medicine	6
Natural Medicine	6
Medicine for the Individual	7
Readings	8

Lesson 2 The Vital Force

The Vital Force	9
Vitalism	9
Integrity of the Whole	10
Symptoms Restore Normal Functioning	10
Disease: Resistance to Flow	10
The Homoeopathic Theory of Disease	11
One Disease	11
Each Vital Force is Unique	11
Predisposition	11
Vitality	12
Exciting Cause	12
The Maintaining Cause	12
Readings	13
Self-Assessment Questions	13

Lesson 3 Resonance - The Law of Similars

Homoeopathy is the Law of Similars	15
The Dynamic Vital Force	15
Energy Affects Energy	15
Subtle Causes	16
The Law of Similars	16

The Similimum	17
Understanding the Opposite	18
The Total Symptom Picture (TSP)	19
Amelioration and Aggravation	21
The Point of Change or Exciting Cause	21
Readings	22
Self-Assessment Questions	22

Lesson 4 The Symptoms

Definition of a Symptom	23
Types of Symptom	23
Presenting Symptoms	24
Prescribing Symptoms	24
Concomitant Symptoms	24
Objective Symptoms	24
Subjective Symptoms	25
Characteristic Symptoms	25
Hierarchy of Symptoms	25
The Hierarchy	26
Strange, Rare and Peculiar (S, R & P)	26
Mental and Emotional	27
General Symptoms	27
Particular Symptoms	28
Common Symptoms	28
How to Construct a Hierarchy	29
Why Was This Order Adopted?	31
A Complete Symptom	31
Time	31
Location	32
Sensation	32
Modality	32
Intensity	33
Grades of Symptom in the Repertory	33
Exercises	34
Readings	34

Lesson 5 The Action of the Medicine

What is a Medicine?	35
Finding the Field of Action of a Medicine	35
The Action of the Medicine on the Vital Force	36

CONTENTS

The Self-Limiting Action of a Medicine	37	More Reaction with Low Potencies	60
Susceptibility	38	The Single Dose	61
The Speed of Action of a Medicine	39	A Model of Potency Action Using Sound Waves	62
The Nature of the Medicine	39	A Change in Octave	63
The Vitality of the Vital Force	39	Life Energy Dances Faster or Slower	63
The Nature of the Exciting Cause	39	How Potency Resonates	63
Summary	39	Some Questions Answered	64
Readings	40	Non-reaction to a High Potency	64
Self-Assessment Questions	41	Non-reaction to Low Potencies	64
		The Appearance of Proving Symptoms	64
Lesson 6 The Law of Cure		The Optimum Dose	65
A Means of Assessing Treatment	43	How Do We Select the Potency Needed?	65
The Organism as a Self-Perpetuating Mechanism	43	Physical Symptoms: 6th Potency	66
The Centrifugal Action of the Vital Force	44	The General Level and Intense Physical Level: 30th Potency	66
Different Types of Change	45	Emotional Turmoil and Violent Acutes: 200th Potency	66
Sensation	45	The Level of Temperament or Constitutional Treatment: 1M or 10M Potency	66
Dysfunction	45	The Lower the Vitality; the Lower the Potency	66
Structural Change	45	The Collective Single Dose, The Ascending Collective Dose and the Split Dose	68
The Progress of Disease	45	Readings	68
The Law of Cure	46
From Vital to Less Vital Organs	46
From Within Outwards	46
From Above Downwards	48
In Reverse Order of Appearance	48
Readings	50
Self-Assessment Questions	50
Lesson 7 The Homoeopathic Theory of Disease		Lesson 9 Proving the Remedy
Acute and Chronic Disease	51	Introduction	69
Acute Disease	51	What is a Proving?	70
Chronic Disease	52	Proving a Remedy	70
From Acute to Chronic Disease	53	The Stages of a Proving	70
Miasms	53	Criteria	70
Acute Miasms	55	Preparation	70
Four Types of Acute Disease	55	A Biased Sample	72
Epidemic	55	Exact Recording	72
Sporadic	56	Procedure	73
Endemic	56	The Quality of the Symptoms	73
Contagious	56	Susceptibility	73
Readings	57	The Quality of the Reaction	73
Self-Assessment Questions	57	A Complete Proving	74
		Idiosyncrasy	75
		Readings	75
Lesson 8 Selecting a Potency		Lesson 10 Taking the Case
Introduction	59	Introduction	77
A Model of Potency Action Using Water	60	The Aim of Case-Taking	77
Light on a Few Questions	60	Accuracy	78
The Effect of Multiple Crude Doses	60	Precision	78
Palliation and Suppression	60	Objectivity	78

The Interview Technique	79	Case Example	105
The Information	79	Raw Data	105
The Questions	81	Prescribing Symptoms	106
Recording the Case	82	What Language Do We Use?	107
Causation	83	The Hierarchy of Symptoms	108
Readings	84	The Repertorization Process	108
		Selecting the Remedy	109
Lesson 11 The Repertory		Exercises	110
Role of the Repertory	85
Different Repertories	85	Lesson 14 Case Analysis
The Organization of the Repertory	85	Introduction	113
Phatak's Repertory	85	Nine Questions to Guide Case-Taking
Kent's Repertory	86	and Analysis	114
The Other Repertories	88	Acute, Chronic or Pseudochronic?	114
Exercises	89	Vitality	115
Readings	92	What Has Disturbed the Vital
		Force?	115
Lesson 12 Repertorization 1		What Changed After the
What is Repertorization?	93	Disturbance?	115
Drawbacks to Repertorization	93	To What is the Vital Force
Quantitative	93	Sensitive?	115
Qualitative	93	When is the Vital Force Sensitive?	116
The Process of Repertorization	94	Where is the Vital Force Sensitive?	116
Summary of 1, 2 and 3	95	Individuality	116
Selecting Prescribing Symptoms	95	The Disease Process	116
Mental and Emotional Symptoms	95	Case Example	117
General Symptoms	96	Raw Data	117
Particular Symptoms	96	The Prescribing Symptoms	117
Look up the Materia Medica	96	The Hierarchy of Symptoms	118
Example 1	97	Analysis	120
The Mental and Emotional		Three Cases to Analyse Yourself	121
Symptoms	97
Generalities	98	Appendix I Hints to Aid Study	127
Analysis	98
Example 2	98	II Guidelines on Conducting a
S, R & P	98	Proving; from the Society of
Mental and Emotional	99	Homoeopaths Research
Generalities	99	Group	133
Particulars	99	Dear Prover; reproduced
Analysis	100	with kind permission of
Example 3	100	Jeremy Sherr	134
S, R & P	101
Mental and Emotional	101	III Some Model Answers to
General Symptoms	102	Activities	135
Analysis	102
Summary of Practice Points	102	Glossary of Terms	145
Exercises	103
Anon 13 Repertorization 2		Bibliography	149
The Language of the Patient	105
The Words Used	105	Index	151
The Structure and Function of
Language	105		